This competency-based course is the first in a sequence of two designed to prepare students for entry-level employment as a security officer and obtain a guard card. Emphasis is placed on orientation and safety, powers of arrest, weapons of mass destruction and terrorism, public relations, observation and documentation, communication protocols, liability/legal aspects, evacuation procedures, officer safety, access and crowd control, courtroom demeanor, parking/traffic control, fire safety, and employability skills.

High School students, you can take this class for free, and gain 2.5 general elective credits.

U.S. Department of Labor Job Outlook: Overall employment of security guards is projected to grow 5 percent from 2014 to 2024, about as fast as the average for all occupations. Employment growth will vary by occupation.

Los Angeles Unified School District/Division of Adult and Career Education. All educational and vocational opportunities are available without regard to race, color, nation origin, sex or disability. A lack of English language skills will not be a barrier to admission and participation in educational and vocational programs. Classes failing to meet the minimum class size will be closed according to Division policy.
